Subject: World Journal of Clinical Cases Manuscript Publication-Manuscript NO: 80635

Dear Dr. Ulhaq,

First of all, congratulations on the online publication of your manuscript in World Journal of Clinical Cases. You can retrieve the published manuscript (as a PDF or Word document) by visiting <http://www.f6publishing.com>. After inputting your registered e-mail and user password, please click on the "Author Login" button to login to the F6Publishing system and then click on the "My Published Manuscripts" heading to access the article.

Through the joint efforts of the assistant editor, science editor, peer reviewers, editorial director, journal editor-in-chief, company editor-in-chief, language editor and production editor, as well as the full cooperation of all authors, the entire publication process for your manuscript has been completed. In order to advance our team's ability to provide better service for you in the future, please be sure to login to the F6Publishing system and complete the following three surveys found in the "Authors Evaluation" zone: Evaluation of a journal's credibility by Authors; Evaluation of a journal's peer review by Authors; and Comment. Your valuable comments and suggestions will be published online with your manuscript.

This last step (Authors Evaluation) is mandatory, and you must complete it within 1 week.

Your opinions or suggestions will be important for further improving our editing and publishing quality. We promise you that your comments, even if negative, will not result in any adverse outcome for you. Your comments will be open to all readers, which can be found at <https://www.f6publishing.com/AuthorReviews>.

You are encouraged to forward or recommend articles to other colleagues using the “Full Article (HTML) QR Codes”, “Full Article (PDF) QR Codes”, and the “Forward by Email” button located in the left column of <https://www.wjgnet.com/2307-8960/full/v11/i9/1992.htm>, so that more colleagues in related fields can read the articles immediately, which will substantially promote academic communication and lead the development of this discipline.

We invite editorial board members and/or peer-reviewers to promptly track the quality of the latest published articles, in order to recognize excellent articles. If your article is reviewed, the article quality tracking-peer-review comments can be found at <https://www.f6publishing.com/ArticleQualityTrackings>. In addition, if any readers make comments on your article, you can find those comments at <https://www.f6publishing.com/ReaderComments>.

We have released all the content related to your manuscript for Articles Published Online via the F6Publishing system; these include (but are not limited to) the manuscript itself, the peer review report, your answers to the reviewers, the CrossCheck report, the signed copyright assignment, and the scientific editor’s work list.
