The results are not significant enough for journal publication yet.
Still more comprehensive evaluations are needed for journal publication.
The authors still have to significantly improve the technical writing and graphical presentation of the paper.
It would also be better if the authors can pay attention to using capital letters correctly like:
"in mathematics department, Universitas Negeri"
"A View on The Potential of Optimal Schedules and Choice of"
More details for reference like:
"Analysis and simulation of SII model for diabetes mellitus. Vol 9(1), 2193-2197."
It would also be very desirable if better and clearer graphical presentation and formula characters can be used in the revised version.
